MEMORANDUM FOR: General Counsel

SUBJECT : Request for Postponement of Jury Duty

1. [REDACTED] of the Soviet and East European Forces Division, OSR, has received a summons to report for jury duty on 18 April 1973 at the Arlington County Circuit Court. [REDACTED] is responsible for intelligence analysis supporting Agency participation in planning for negotiation of a Mutual and Balanced Force Reduction treaty with the Warsaw Pact. Initial substantive meetings between NATO and the Warsaw Pact are planned for September. Preparations for these meetings are underway now.

2. [REDACTED] is responsible for organizing the work of a newly formed team of analysts to work on some vital aspects of the problem. His absence for four weeks at this time would seriously handicap our efforts.

3. To permit OSR to carry out its responsibilities in this important effort it is requested that you assist in persuading the court to postpone [REDACTED] jury duty until after September 1973.

4. I am only requesting postponement and not exemption from jury duty. Both [REDACTED] and I consider jury duty to be a moral as well as legal obligation of every responsible citizen.

The Honorable William L. Winston Senior Judge of the Circuit Court of Arlington County
1400 North Courthouse Road
Arlington, Virginia 22201

Dear Judge Winston:

STATINTL

The purpose of this letter is to request a postponement from jury duty for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who has been summoned to appear at the Circuit Court on April 18, 1973.

As you know, the Agency expects its employees to perform jury duty and seeks postponements only in particularly compelling circumstances. In [REDACTED] case, he is part of a group presently involved in preparation for negotiation of a Mutual and Balanced Force Reduction Treaty between NATO and the Warsaw Pact. Initial meetings are planned for September and it would assist us greatly if [REDACTED]'s jury duty could be postponed until after September. A copy of his jury summons is enclosed.

We appreciate your efforts on our behalf. If you desire further information, [REDACTED] of my office will be pleased to discuss this matter further.

Sincerely,

Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel
